

JULIUS B. TOLBERT
Deputy Legislative Counsel
LC 41

Julius B. Tolbert joined the Office of Legislative Counsel in November of 2012. A member of the State Bar of Georgia since 2003, and admitted to practice in state and federal courts, Julius began his legal career in December of 2003 as judicial law clerk to Judge James T. Chafin III, State Court of Henry County, Georgia. Beginning in March 2005, Julius joined the Administrative Office of the Courts of Georgia, where he served as staff attorney (2005-2006) and later as Assistant Director for Legal Affairs (2006-2012).

With the Administrative Office of the Courts of Georgia, Julius provided legal management and counsel to the judicial branch on matters of law, governance, contracts, information technology, human resources, litigation, and other concerns impacting the operations of the courts. With the Administrative Office of the Courts of Georgia, Julius also served as legal counsel to the professional licensing and regulatory boards of the judiciary.

Julius is a 2003 graduate of the University of Georgia School of Law (Juris Doctor) and a 2000 graduate of Emory University (B.A., Political Science).
